A request was made, on behalf of Mrs. Atwater, who was about to be confined, that they be allowed a few days of respite, but the prefect insisted that they were to be sent away to the coast and must be ready the next day. Four country carts were prepared for them and their goods duly packed. They were to start on Aug. 15. A guard of twenty soldiers was made ready. As soon as the arrangements were made the foreign houses were sealed up. The missionaries requested that they be permitted to sell their houses, to secure silver for the journey. Men, women and children were butchered. their bodies mutilated and in many instances their heads placed on the gates of the villages. So far as known, the first murders occurred June 26, when two women, members of the China inland mission, were killed at Hsi-Ti-Hsi-Fu. They were Miss Whitechurch and Miss Sewell. who lived alone at the mission, a remote On the day mentioned about 300 Boxers forced an entrance into the mission compound and some of the village men smashed the gate. The local magistrate was sent for, but it is said he reproved the messenger for disturbing him. The mob took this as an indication that they were not to be interfered with and forced an entrance into the house. The two women made vain appeals for mercy, but were beaten to death with clubs and heavy glass kettles. It is said that one of them survived the assault about an hour. Their clothing was stripped off and their valuables stolen. When the local magistrate was informed of the murders he sent two

The order was complied with, and the entire party of foreigners was admitted between files of soldiers through the outer gate to the court. Once safely in the walls of the yamen the ranks of soldiers were opened and about forty Boxers admitted. They fell upon the unarmed missionaries with swords, and a horrible butchery ensued. The bodies of the unfortunate men and women were hacked to pieces, their heads cut off and placed in baskets, which were suspended over the four gates of the city. Forty native Christians were also slain, and the following day the Catholic priests, all said to have been Frenchmen, were beheaded. In addition to the Piggott party from Shou-Yang, the following perished at Tai-Yuen: Mr. Stokes and wife; Mr. Simpson and wife; Mr. Beynan, wife and three children; Mr. Farthing, wife and three children; Dr. Leavitt, wife and one child; Dr. Miller Wilson and wife; Mr. Whitehouse and wife. The list is very incomplete, but it is certain that in all thirty-three white persons were slain. According to reports current, the governor at Shan-Si sent a dispatch to the Peking government reporting the massacre and demanding a reward.

OTHERS ARE MISSING. Thirty-five miles from Tai-Yuen is the English Baptist mission of Hsin-Chou, or the great road. There were at Hsin-Chou six persons, and their fate is unknown. They are Mr. and Mrs. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. McCurran and an unmarried man and woman. At the outbreak of the trouble it is reported the entire party fled to the mountains, escaping safely from the village. Since then no word has been heard Owing to the friendliness of the local official at Tai-Ku, which is about twenty miles from Tai-Yuen, the American board mission there escaped the first attacks upon foreigners. SMALL NET CHANGES BY THE POLLS RETURNED TO DATE.

Vatican Robbery-Activity in South Africa-Famous German Field Marshal Is Critically III.

LONDON, Oct. 4, 2 a. m .- The results of yesterday's polling in the parliamentary general elections were less striking than those of Tuesday. The Conservative majorities still show increases in numerous contests, but in a less marked degree. On the other hand, the Liberals have gained additional seats. On the whole, the indication this morning is that there will not be much change in the complexion of the new Parliament. As matters stand now, out of 287 candidates returned, the relative strength of parties is as follows: Ministerialists, 212; Liberals, including labor members, 47; Nationalists, 28.

Altogether the Liberals have gained ten seats and the Conservatives seven. Only one Conservative seat was gained yesterday, but it was a very important victory. In the Brightside division of Sheffield, an industrial constitutency, held for ten years by the late Anthony J. Mundella, who was succeeded by Fred Maddison in 1897, the Maddison majority of 183 was converted by tive majority of 964. At Derby the Liberals had a striking success, recovering there the two seats wrested in the general election of 1895, from Sir William Vernon Harcourt and Sir Thomas Roeby. Sir Henry Howe Bemrose and Mr. Godfrey Drage were returned.

AWAITING ACTION OF UNION.

Big Companies Say Little Operators Will Not Deter Settlement.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 3.-Neither the operators nor striking miners expect any change in the Wyoming valley until the union miners take official action on the 10 per cent. increase in wages offered by the big coal companies. The talk about the individual operators bjecting to the offer made to the men by the companies is not taken seriously by the trade here. The representatives of the Delaware and Hudson, Lackawanna, Lehigh Valley, Lehigh and Wilkesbarre companies say if the strikers consent to go back to work at the terms offered the individual operators would do them no good to stand in the llow their mines to remain in idleness.

This they are not willing to do, as was judged from the actions of certain operators the past week. They have been grumbling a great deal because the big companies do not do something and get the men back to work. And if the representatives of the big companies are to be telieved, the individual operator is not the oppressed man he would have the public believe he is. He gets his share of the sales, and in a great many cases his operating expenses are a great deal less than the big companies The question of manning the mines should work be resumed at an early day, is now becoming a serious question. Before the strike was begun experienced miners were scarce, and for the want of competent men many "breasts" in the mines which the operators worked had to remain idle. Since the strike began hundreds of the best miners have left the country for Wales. The places of these men cannot be filled at once. The leaders of the United Mine Workers in Luzerne county are jubilant over the success of the big demonstration yesterday. The auditing committee met this afternoon and passed upon the expense account of the parade. Each striker was assessed one cent, and this was more than ample to pay all expenses.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., Oct. 3.-Lying at the morgue in this city with a bullet through his heart is a man, powerfully built, with black hair and mustache, about six feet tall, aged apparently forty-five years. He was one of two men who held up the Kansas City passenger train on the Burlington road, three miles south of this city, at midnight. Express Messenger Charles Baxter killed him.

The two men boarded the train at Union Pacific transfer and climbed over the tender just as the train was crossing the Mosquito creek bridge. Engineer Donnelly and Frank Holman, fireman, who were in charge of the engine, were ordered to slow up as soon as the train had crossed the bridge. While one man held a revolver on the engine crew his companion went back and cut off the baggage and mail cars, leaving the day coaches and sleepers stand-

VIENNA, Oct. 3 .- The Admiralty has received the following dispatch from Taku: "In accordance with the request of Count Von Waldersee the seizure of Shang-Hai-Kuan was decided upon by a council of the admirals Sept. 29, and all was prepared for action. English ships were sent to demand its surrender, and the Chinese evacuated the place. The British then hoisted their flag, and the other flagships thereupon went thither and put up their respective flags on the forts.'

THE GERMAN PRESS. It is Uniformly Commendatory of the

unanimously applaud Emperor William's "championship of the combined interests of civilization and Christianity," as contained to Scranton next Wednesday to address in his reply to the message from the Emperor of China. At the same time, the commentators find in his Majesty's telegram a new bridge upon which the Chinese authorities may approach the demands of the allied powers. The reply, generally, is regarded as conciliatory. The National Zeitung thinks it affords "an indisputable basis for sober, effective, common action on the part of the allies.

Such differences of opinion as are noticeable in the press regarding the Kaiser's telegram are confined to minor points. The Kreuz Zeitung considers the most important feature of the reply to be Emperor William's invitation to the Chinese Emperor to return to Peking, and says: "If this invitation is accepted it will greatly facilitate peace negotiations. In any event, there is no question that the Kaiser has gone a long way to Emperor Kwang Su.' The Berliner Post takes the same view. Several journals emphasize the fact that Germany's moderate policy is again so clearly outlined that, henceforth, it will be impossible to impute to her extravagant plans. Some of the moderate liberal papers regret to see Christianity placed in the foreground. The Rhine Westphalian Zeit-ung, formerly a Bismarckian organ, con-Emperor William no longer demands the giving up of the guilty mandarins. The Vorwaerts, the Socialist organ, oberves: "Emperor William disavows Count Von Buelow in allowing Kwang Su to undertake the punishment, and in beginning peace negotiations before the German dcmands have been complied with. The correspondent of the Associated Press learns that the Chinese Emperor's telegram came through the Chinese legation and that the answer was sent through Mr. Mumm Von Schwartzenstein, German minister to China. When the attention of the Foreign Office officials was drawn to the fact that the Kalser's dispatch apparently approximates the American position in letting Kwang Su inflict the punishment. they pointed out that the Kaiser refers to the co-operation of the powers in that matter, adding that there had been no substantial differences between the American and German policies in this respect. The United States embassy also emphasized the latter feature of the case, declaring that the differences were merely as to questions
